Europe to hold SME Week

The very first European SME Week is going to be organized on May 6-14, 2009. The event will witness activities to be conducted on European level that are of concern of the SMEs; and expected to come forward are information, recommendations, support to help improve the activities of SMEs and, opportunities to come up with a series of ideas. Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Turkey (TOBB) plays the part of national coordinator in the said initiative to represent the Turkish private sector.

TOBB aims developing the Turkish SMEs

It appears that SMEs are not able to benefit from the credit system and Small and Medium Scale Industry Development Organization (KOSGEB) credit support, since a significant number of them lack providing the required guarantee to get loans. This is why the Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Turkey sped up its activities to extend the practice of Credit Guarantee Fund and to boost the resources utilized to this end.
